PRESS RELEASE

Date: November 27, 2007

Tierney Morton and Jordan Sabin, students at the Capt. Nathan Hale School in Coventry, along with Rebecca Trueman and Nicholas LoRicco, students at Coventry High School have been awarded the Connecticut Association of Public School Superintendents' (CAPSS) Superintendent/Student Recognition Award. This award is for leadership service to the school, academic prowess relative to ability, and service to others in the community. The presentation ceremony was held on Monday, November 26 at 7:00 p.m. at RHAM High School in Hebron.

Dr. Donna Bernard, Superintendent of Schools in Coventry, made the presentations as part of a program designed by school administrators to recognize students who have served their schools and communities while maintaining good scholastic progress.

The Superintendent/Student Recognition Program awards a Certificate of Excellence at the discretion of the local Superintendent of Schools according to a distribution formula set for all state school districts. Please visit the Coventry Public Schools website (www.coventrypublicschools.org) for information on each recipient.

CAPSS, the statewide school superintendent's professional organization, is based in West Hartford and provides professional development, personal support, statewide conferences, legislative information, and educational services to its membership. This is the twenty-second year of the CAPSS Superintendent/Student Recognition Program, developed to strengthen the relationship between students and school administrators.
