Winners have been selected from Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School in Coventry for the 36th Annual Paul G. Keough Earth Artists Program sponsored by the United States Environmental Protection Agency. Hundreds of students from all over New England in kindergarten through sixth grade entered the poem and poster contest. Grade 6 students, Christopher Bohr, Anneliese Kuhnly, Kaitlyn Sabin, and Ryley Blouin won in the poem category. Grade 6 student, Kristina Bilyeu, won in the poster category. The students will be honored at a recognition ceremony on June 4 at The University of Hartford's Lincoln Theater in Hartford. Their teachers, Mr. Cherniske, Mrs. Manzone, and Mr. Spivey, parents/guardians, and guests are invited to attend.
