PRESS RELEASE

Date: April 21, 2008

FOX 61 and CW20 Student News held its annual awards ceremony for student-produced news stories on 4/11/08 at The Greater Hartford Academy of the Arts in Hartford, CT.

Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School Grade 7 students Emma Thomas, Mackenzie Malone, and Rose Macomber won first place in the United Way of the Capital Area Service to Community Award for their story entitled, "Homes for Our Troops." This award comes with a $1,000 grant to be used for computer equipment at Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School.

Grade 6 students Katie Sabin, Emma Gould, Natasha Golovchenko, and Emma Willett won first place in the Governor's Partnership for Prevention Award for their story entitled, "CT Vietnam Memorial." This award comes with a $500 grant to be used for computer equipment at Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School.

The students are coached by Challenge and Enrichment teacher Carla Kennedy. Over the past twenty-three years Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School students have been the recipients of over thirty-five FOX61 and CW20 News student awards.
