PRESS RELEASE

Date: May 13, 2008

Attorney General Richard Blumenthal announced earlier this month the winners of the 15th Annual Law Day Essay contest which were chosen from 721 entries submitted by eighth grade students from across Connecticut. Student essays addressed the question, "Should the driving age be raised to 18 to reduce crashes involving young drivers?" "Nicholas LaPointe, Grade 8 student at Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School in Coventry, placed seventh, honorable mention, out of the 721 entries submitted," said his language arts teacher, Mrs. Debbie Goodale.
