UPDATED PRESS RELEASE

Date: June 16, 2009

Winners have been selected from the Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School in Coventry for the 37th Annual Paul G. Keough Earth Artists Program sponsored by the United States Environmental Protection Agency. Hundreds of students from all over New England in kindergarten through sixth grade entered the poem and poster contest. Grade 6 Coventry students Adam Hennequin, Joseph Stickles, Isis Elkins, Samantha LeBlond, Jordan Butler, Allan Andrews, Hannah Larson, and Kevin Smart won in the poem category. Samantha LeBlond also won in the poster category along with grade 6 students Yasmine Forte and Tanner Delillo. The students were honored at a recognition ceremony at The University of Hartford's Lincoln Theater in Hartford on June 2. Teachers included in this project are Laura Myslinski, Adrienne Manzone, Carol Sheehan, Judy Ripp, and Bill Cherniske.
