PRESS RELEASE

January 15, 2010

As a part of the ongoing goals for continually increasing efficiencies in the Coventry Public Schools, there will be administrative changes made in district leadership commencing with the 2010-2011 school year.

Troy Hopkins, current Coventry High School Principal, will serve as the principal of the George H. Robertson Intermediate School. He will continue his role for weather-related school closing responsibilities in the Superintendent's absence.

David Petrone, current principal of the George H. Robertson Intermediate School, will serve as the principal of the Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School. He will continue his role as the Superintendent's Designee, as well as the District Testing Coordinator.

Michele Mullaly, current principal of the Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School, will serve as principal of Coventry High School. She will continue her role as the District Curriculum Coordinator.

Judith Richard, current part time Pupil and Staff Support Services Director, will retire as of June 30, 2010. The position will be posted immediately.

Scott Sadinsky, assistant principal at the Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School, will continue to serve as the district's Teacher Education and Mentoring (TEAM) Coordinator, as well as the Food Service Liaison.

The Administrative Council is most enthusiastic about the continued collaboration and shared responsibilities for educational program supervision.

For further information, or if you have any questions, please call the Superintendent's Office at 860-742-7317 x2.
