Members of the Grade 6 Chorus at the Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School in Coventry under the direction of music teacher Eduard Gibbs were selected to perform at the Connecticut Music Educators Association (CMEA) Conference to be held in the Connecticut Convention Center on Friday, April 9 at 2:30 p.m. CMEA is holding its first annual honor's choir for students in Grades 4 through 6. Each chorus director selected four chorus members from Grades 4 through 6 to participate. Auditions were held, and the Grade 6 students chosen from the Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School to perform were Chase Martin, Caitlin LaCoille, Hayley Jacobs, and Meghan Boudreau.

CMEA will have one of the top choral conductors in the State of Connecticut working with these selected students. This will be a great opportunity for Coventry's sixth grade students to sing in a select group with the top Grades 4 through 6 students in the State of Connecticut.

For further information, or if you have any questions, please call Tony Gibbs at the Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School at 860-742-7334, Ext. 428.
