PRESS RELEASE

Date: January 29, 2010

Alex Boutin, Gr. 8 student at the Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School in Coventry, has qualified to represent his school at the state level of the National Geographic Bee by passing the written exam. On January 22 Alex won the verbal geographic exam with over thirty students participating to qualify for the state level.

The state Geographic Bee will be held in April at Central Connecticut State University. One winner from each state and territory will advance to the national competition, which will be held in May at the National Geographic Society headquarters in Washington, D.C.

For further information, or if you have any questions, please call Dr. Al Scopino at the Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School at 860-742-7334, Ext. 423.
