PRESS RELEASE

Date: May 12, 2010

More than 1,000 Connecticut students have participated in the spring 2010 Stock Market Game, Newspaper in Education program, sponsored by the Hartford Courant. Student teams start with an imaginary $100,000 to buy or sell stocks. Coventry's Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School Grade 7 students, Cameron Ennis and Andrew Dimock, coached by their Challenge and Enrichment Teacher, Carla Kennedy, placed first in the Grade 7-8 middle school division. The program ran for ten weeks and ended on April 30, 2010. The winners will receive a certificate from the Hartford Courant.

For further information, or if you have any questions, please call Carla Kennedy at the Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School at 860-742-7334, Ext. 279.
