PRESS RELEASE

Date: March 28, 2011

Two Coventry High School students are being honored at the Connecticut Association of Schools (CAS) twenty-eighth Annual Scholar Athlete Recognition Banquet to recognize Connecticut's outstanding senior athletes. The recognition dinner is scheduled for Sunday, May 1, at the Aqua-Turf Club in Plantsville.

Josephine LoRicco is this year's Coventry High School Valedictorian and a member of the National Honor Society. Josie has played four years on the basketball team and softball team and is captain of both varsity teams. In addition, she has played three years on the volleyball team. Her community involvement goes beyond school where she has coached a youth softball team for two years.

Shane Wilson is a member of the National Honor Society, recipient of Coventry High School's Patriot Award, recipient of the Society of Women Engineers Certificate of Merit, and a member of the American Legion Boys' State. Shane has played for three years on the varsity football team and was captain of the team this year. He has participated for three years on the varsity outdoor track team, two years on the NCCC All-Conference Indoor Track varsity team where he is currently captain.
