PRESS RELEASE

Date: March 8, 2011

Two Coventry High School students are being honored at the Connecticut Association of Schools (CAS) Sixteenth Annual Arts Recognition Banquet to recognize Connecticut's outstanding high school visual and performing arts students. The recognition dinner is scheduled for Monday, April 4, at the Aqua-Turf Club in Plantsville. Senior Kirk Bittner has been nominated for his outstanding lighting and sound design for the Coventry High School Drama Company productions. Kirk has been involved in the lighting and sound of the shows since his freshman year. He became the lighting and sound designer in tenth grade and has been in charge of lighting and sound ever since. Kirk has initiated much of this work independently. He also volunteers to help community organizations with their lighting and sounds needs.

Senior Amy Dziewaltowski, an art student for the past four years, has been nominated for her work in the visual arts. She is outstanding, fluent, and flexible with every assignment and is an asset to art class by example. She is the Yearbook editor this year as well as in her second year of photography.
