PRESS RELEASE

Date: November 3, 2010

Coventry High School has been selected to host the 2010 Charter Oak Music Festival. Bringing outstanding student musicians together, the Festival has also attracted exceptional band and choral directors from around Connecticut and New England. Over the years the Festival has met the challenges of dwindling schools' arts budgets. The competition from various school activities provides a vibrant and exceptional atmosphere of musical growth and cooperation.

In this the 29th Festival year, Coventry High School has the opportunity to continue the tradition. This year the band and choir will include approximately two hundred students from Coventry, East Hampton, Lyman Memorial, Middletown, Portland, Bacon Academy, and RHAM. The band and the choir will be hosted at Coventry High School for three days of rehearsals culminating in a performance on November 9 at 7:00 p.m. in the Veterans Auditorium. The public is invited to attend this very special performance.

For further information, or if you have any questions, please call Ned Smith at Coventry High School at 860-742-7346, Ext. 218.
