The following 6th, 7th and 8th grade students from the Capt. Nathan Hale Middle School in Coventry were selected to exhibit their art work at The Celebrate the Arts Festival on Saturday, May 14, 2011:

- Meagan Thomas
- Nina Yilmaz
- Megan Hurley
- Nathan Rockx
- Mathieu Chattelle
- Madelyn MacBryde
- Zach LaBrec
- Haley Sattar
- Jordan Butler
- Brooke Vaillancourt
- Ellie Jean

This event is a fundraiser for The Haitian Health Foundation and all proceeds will directly benefit their clinic. Surrounding local communities, (Coventry, Tolland, Mansfield and Willington Middle Schools as well as CSA, Community School of the Arts) will be exhibiting art from students to celebrate the artistic gifts of local youth. Students will be awarded ribbons for best in show and all students will receive recognition for their art work. The entries will be judged by a panel of local artists and awards will be given at 2:00pm. Thirty artists/artisans from the local community will also be exhibiting and selling art at this free event.

This event will be held at the Storrs Community Church, 90 Tolland Turnpike, Route 195, and Coventry, CT. from 10-3. The competition was sponsored by the Storrs Community Church.

If you have any questions or for further information, please contact the CNHMS art teachers, Melissa Sposato or Lori Vigue at 860-742-7334.
