PRESS RELEASE

Date: February 18, 2011

Rehearsals are underway for the Coventry High School Drama Company production of You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown. Almost thirty students are involved in various aspects of the production. Two of Coventry High School's alumni are helping with the show. Bailey Emerson is overseeing the choreography, and Keri Smart is designing costumes for the female leads and other actresses. The show is using an expanded cast for the chorus so watch for the dynamic effect this has on many numbers. The six leads are cast as follows: Peter Larson as Charlie Brown; Jessica Voros as Sally; Bram Kyer as Linus; Nicolas Henri as Schroeder; Alexa Jacobs as Lucy; and Nicole Bernier as Snoopy. Samantha Burke is the stage manager, and Glenden Merrell is the assistant stage manager. Kirk Bittner is designing the lights and sound for the show with the assistance of Anthony Pappalardo.

The performance dates are March 17, 18, and 19, 2011 in the Veterans Auditorium and will begin at 7:30 p.m. each evening. The box office will open at 6:30 p.m. every performance night, and the theatre will open at 7:00 p.m. All seating is general admission. Ticket prices are $10.00 for adults, $7.00 for students and senior citizens, and children five years of age and under may attend for free if accompanied by an adult. The stage director and producer is Joanne Donoher-Ives, the choral director is Melissa Rood, and the musical director is Ned Smith.

For further information, or if you have any questions, please call Joanne Donoher-Ives at the Coventry High School at 860-742-7346, Ext. 581.
