On June 7 Coventry High School's Contemporary Issues class held their 31st Annual Geraldine T. Fitch Memorial Public Speaking Contest. Eleven students ranging from grade 9 through grade 12 competed in this contest. The topic of this year's contest was, "Will the recent death of Osama Bin Laden have a positive or negative impact on the war on terror?"

The first place winner is sophomore Michael Clausen, and second place winner is senior Alex Macomber. The other students who competed were: Britta Stelmach, Jacob Sauerhoefer, Katrina Marshall, Ian Tyska, Daniel Tyska, Amanda Waugh, John Lundquist, and Kevin Legault.
