PRESS RELEASE

Date: February 10, 2011

Coventry High School Seniors, Amy Dziewaltowski, Arleigh Christensen, and Ashli-Nicole Levesque recently won Honorable Mention in the prestigious and very competitive juried art show conducted by Connecticut Scholastic Art. The awards were presented on January 30, 2011 at the Lincoln Theater at the University of Hartford. The guest artist and speaker for the award ceremony was David Dunlop, a painter and teacher. The winning entries shown below were on display at the University of Hartford for two weeks.

Amy Dziewaltowski's winning entry, "Twisted Eden," is a value study of a tree with snakes and red apple.

Arleigh Christensen's winning entry, "Tree of Life," is a polychromatic prisma-color pencil tree on an edge.

Ashli-Nicole Levesque won for her black and white photo of a man in Venice Italy. This is the second year in a row Ashli-Nicole received honorable mention in this competitive show!

For further information, or if you have any questions, please call art teachers Alison Blair at Coventry High School at 860-742-7346, Ext. 138, or Laura de la Llave at Ext. 589.
