When spring rains and snow melt swell the banks of the Housatonic River, we offer whitewater rafting trips at Bulls Bridge Gorge in Kent, Connecticut.

We'll wend our way through the surging rapids on this challenging Class IV-V section of the river. Our skilled guides will expertly maneuver you through such rapids as the Flume, S-Turn and Pencil Sharpener. Bulls Bridge Gorge offers some of the most technically demanding whitewater in the East.

By appointment only, not for the faint-hearted. Cost includes wetsuit, all equipment, and lunch. (Low water may force us to cancel or move to a different section)
